

Archbishop Chaput's 3rd Annual Christmas Card Design Contest 2018

Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap., along with his Auxiliary Bishops, are pleased to announce the 3rd Annual Christmas Card Design Contest. School Administrators, Teachers, PREP Teachers, and Parents are encouraged to invite students to create an original design for the Archbishop's official 2018 Christmas Card.

All cards are to be an original work depicting the joy of Christ's birth. Students should utilize an 8 ½ x 11" piece of paper (preferably card stock) folded in half for their layout. The design should occupy no more than the front side of one panel.

The student's name, grade, and school/parish should be clearly printed on the back of the card.

While only one design will be selected for publication, honorable mentions will also be selected in the following categories:

PREP

K-4th

5th-8th

9th-12th

Schools of Special Education

Submissions are due to the Office of Catholic Education by Friday, October 12th.

Please send all entries via physical mail to:

The Office of Catholic Education

Attn: Kathy Boyce/Archbishop's Christmas Card Design Contest

Archdiocesan Pastoral Center

222 North 17th Street

Philadelphia, PA 19103

Any questions should be directed to Kathy Boyce at kboyce@archphila.org or (215) 587-3700.